FOREWORD

The '51 Smoke Signals was written for the purpose of preserving fond memories of our days at M.C.H.S.

The hustle and bustle of crowded halls between classes the awaiting of the coronation of the Homecoming queen decorating for class parties grease paint and ten minutes before curtain time the band's first feeble notes growing steady football, basketball, track and baseball noon hour pep meetings . . . Spring!!! and the J.-Sr. prom cramming for finals Seniors with their caps and gowns these are the things that are a part of us remaining always in our hearts.

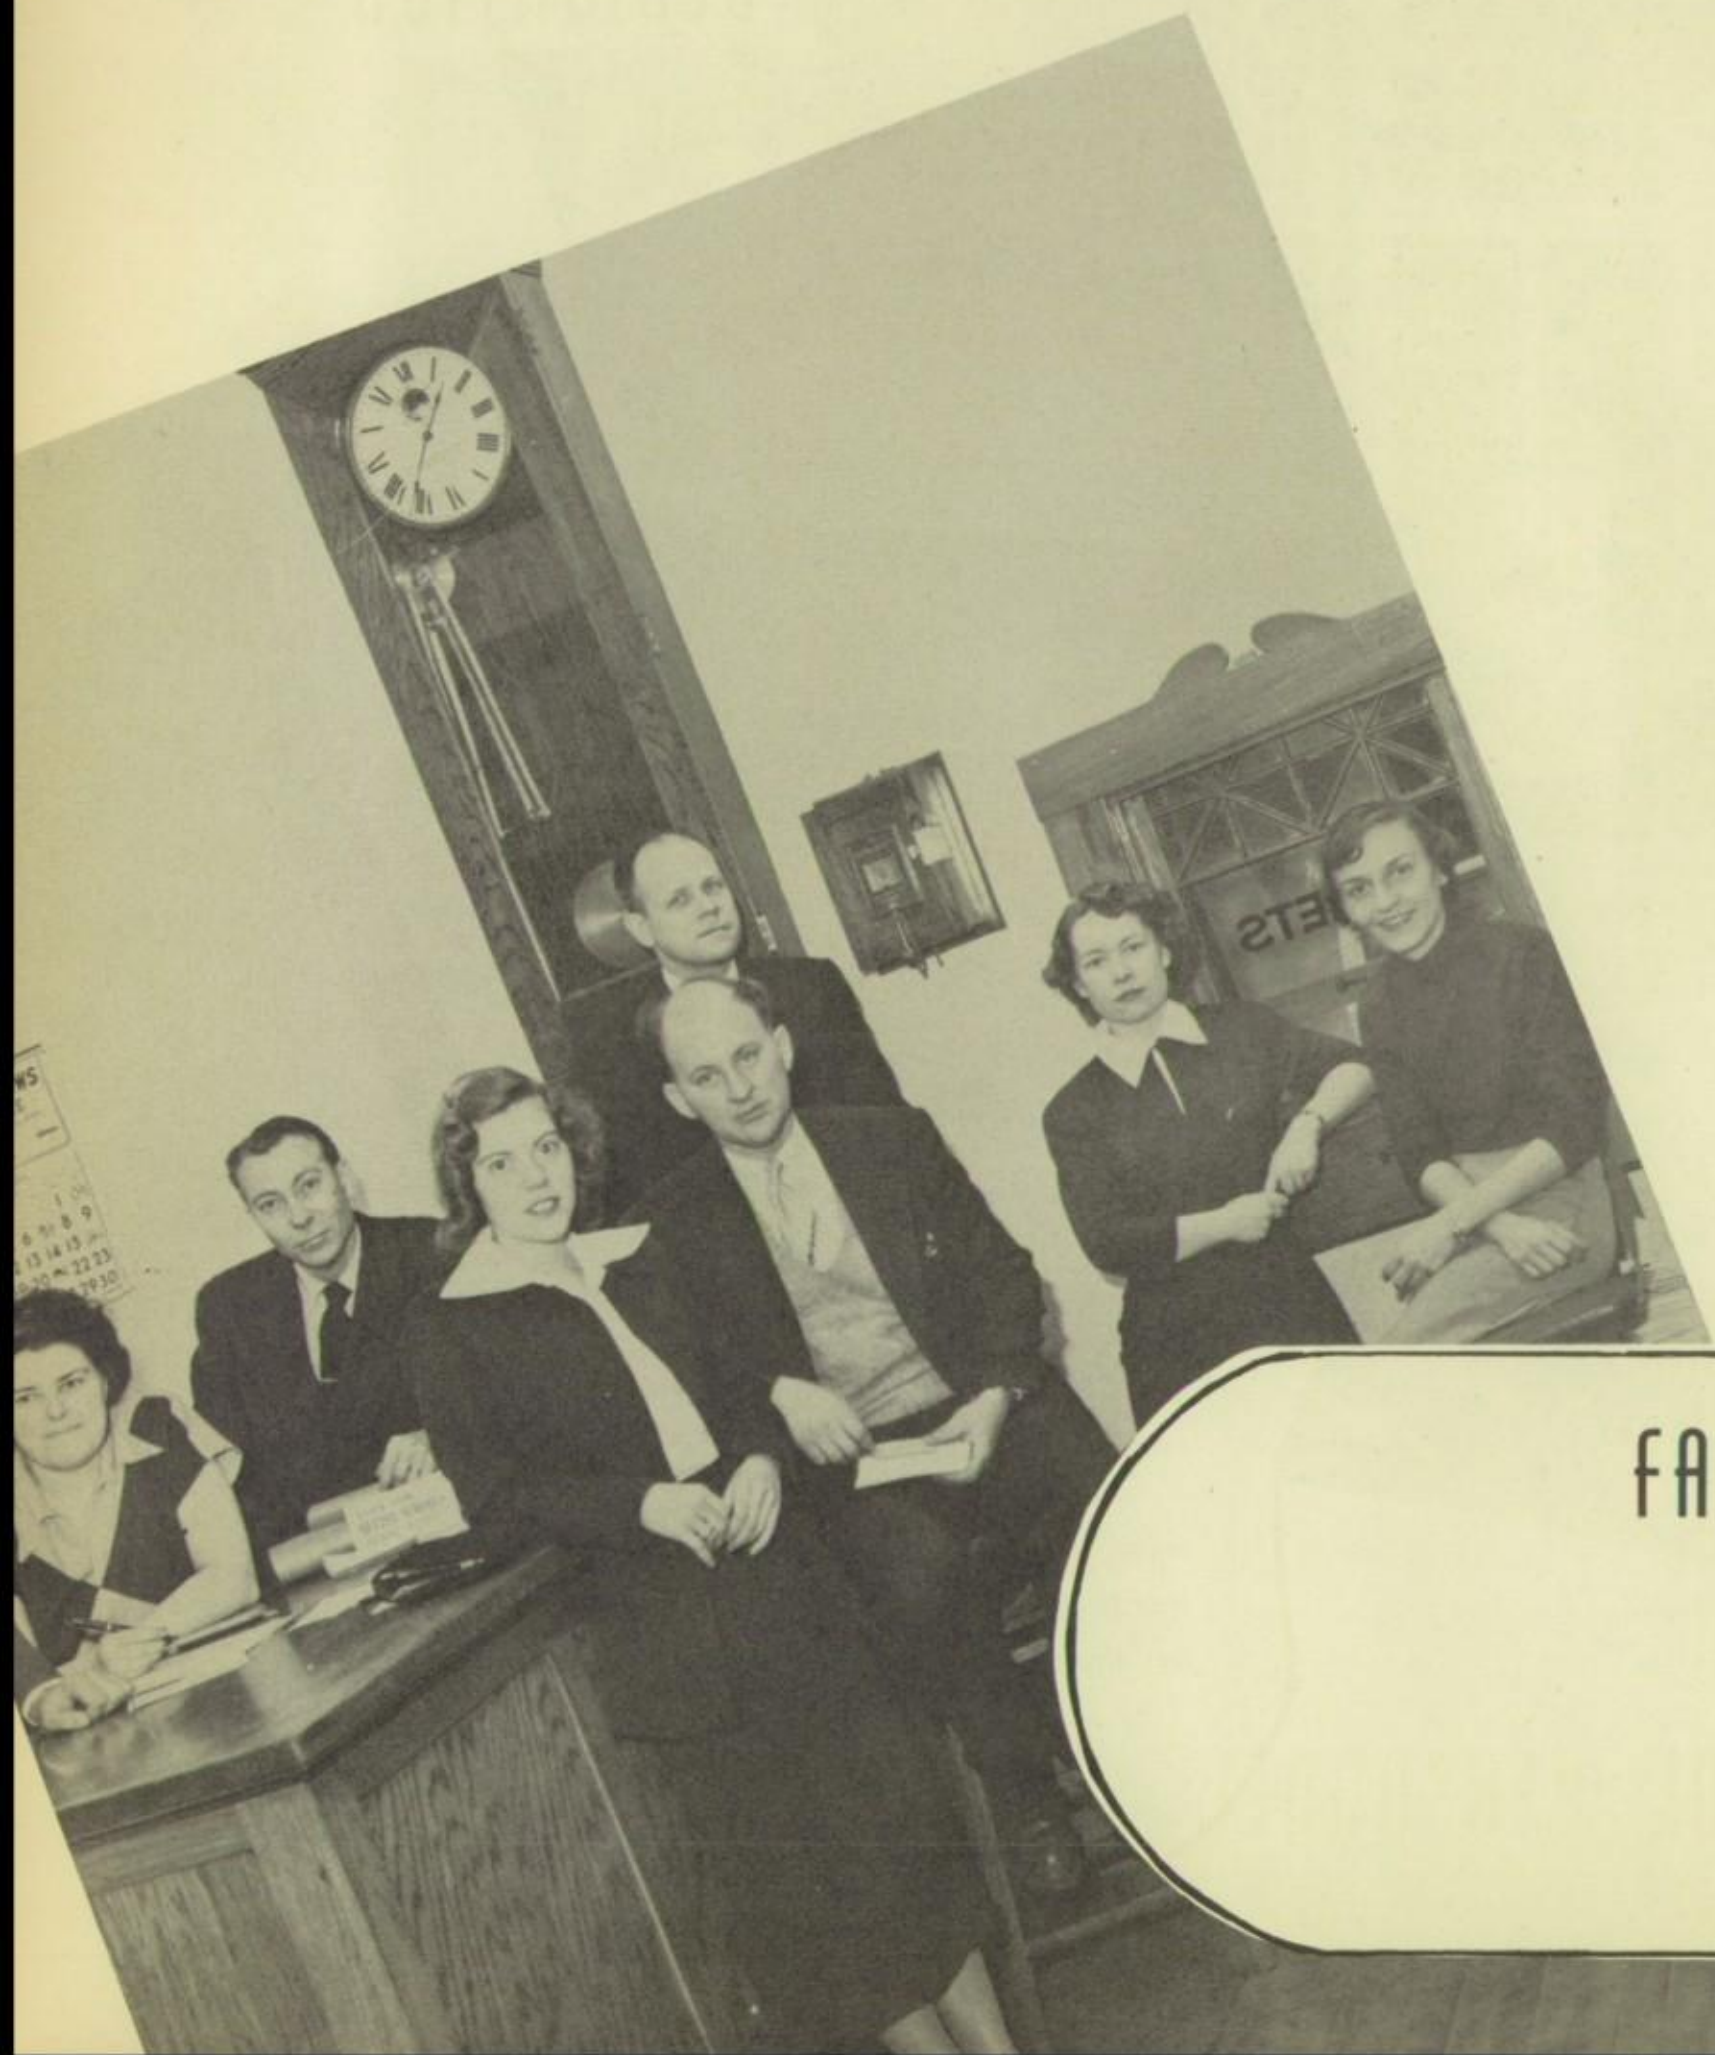

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1951, dedicate this year's Smoke Signals to our parents, for without their careful guidance and continued interest, our four years at Marengo High would not have been so successful.

Through their understanding and encouragement, we were able to withstand the difficult moments as well as appreciate the happy moments experienced during our days here at M.C.H.S.

FACULTY

ADD

The faculty of MCHS for the year of 1950-51 has exceeded in number over all other years; and they have been exceptionally fine teachers, putting in great efforts to better our education; giving individual guidance and taking special notice of all activities. Their tireless efforts have been greatly appreciated by all, especially the seniors.

The ladies in charge of food service have put in many hours preparing wholesome and appetizing meals for well over 150 students a day.

Our custodians are the ones to thank for keeping our school in such fine clean condition. Their continual job from fall to spring consists of mowing and raking the lawn, putting up storm windows, taking them down, shoveling the walks, getting the mail, and the eternal sweeping of the halls.

The men who drive the buses through heavy snow, driving rain, bottomless mud and on slick, slippery highways, deserve a lot of credit. They begin their task of picking up students early in the morning and average 75 miles a day. They drive students to games after a day of work, sometimes as far away as 50 miles.

Our school secretary is very important to our school. She keeps books, makes announcements, signs passes and does a great many little, but important things to help run the school. She is an efficient, cheerful person to have around.

Without the efficient operations of our fifteen teachers, five bus drivers, two food preparationists, two custodians and one school secretary, MCHS would not be running so smoothly.

Therefore, we the graduating class of '51 would like to congratulate our school personnel for the wonderful job they are doing.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education is the governing body of the school district. It is legally responsible for the education of the youth of the community, adequate to America's needs, and they must find the answers to their problems at times in the face of extreme difficulties.

The Board of Education employs a principal who shall have charge of the administration of the school. The board strives for an effective relationship with its administrator and faculty, all working for the best interests of the young men and women of the community. It strives for unity and harmony within the board. It endeavors for a clear understanding of the duties of the board, administrator and faculty, including definite policies, regulations and rules. It studies the needs of the students, so that they can be fitted with a good basic background for life, as good citizens in their own community, state and nation. These working relations can only be carried out if there is a genuine liking and respect on the part of the board and the principal for each other.

The attainment of the goals of a Board of Education calls for courageous action, for the waiving of personal preferences to the common good, for pledge of every board member to work untiringly with his fellow board members to maintain public education as a building tool of our nation. This the Board of Education is attempting to accomplish to the best of its ability.

PRINCIPAL

Many, many years ago the famous philosopher, Plato, said, "A good education consists in giving to the body and to the soul all the beauty and perfection of which it is capable."

The application of this great idea of Plato's has changed throughout the intervening years as society has changed. But the central idea of developing the best human being possible has ever remained the goal of education.

If I am right that our American system of education is the symbol of the special contribution which this, our republic has made to the concept of democracy, then the importance of education is everlastingly increasing. No less a person than General Omar Bradley recently stated that the strength and backbone of our democracy is an informed electorate. "We Americans," he said, "achieve this strength through widespread public education — education which prepares the citizenry for active participation and simultaneously assures their liberty."

The student who has achieved the ideal of Plato and General Bradley, in my opinion, makes a citizen who is "easy to lead, but difficult to drive; easy to govern, but impossible to enslave." If this be true, then we in America are justified in the great faith we have placed in the great American school system, a part of which is our own Community High School.

If our high school, our community, our state, our nation, are to meet the challenges with which they are confronted, then we must have the best schools and the best educational programs that we can possibly develop.

The citizens of our community realize this need and have voted to repair and build to the present structure so that all the youth of Marengoland may have an opportunity to learn and develop their minds and bodies so they may be the best possible persons that they might be.

So long as all American Youth have this opportunity which is found nowhere else on this earth, we can be assured that the next and the next and the next generation will not fail.

To those students who are graduating, be thankful that you grew up in America, the land of free education. To those who are coming to this school or are returning next year, I bid you welcome and invite you to make the most of the educational opportunities that you will find here in this beautiful and yet to be improved educational edifice, dedicated to the democratic concept of adequate educational opportunities for all.

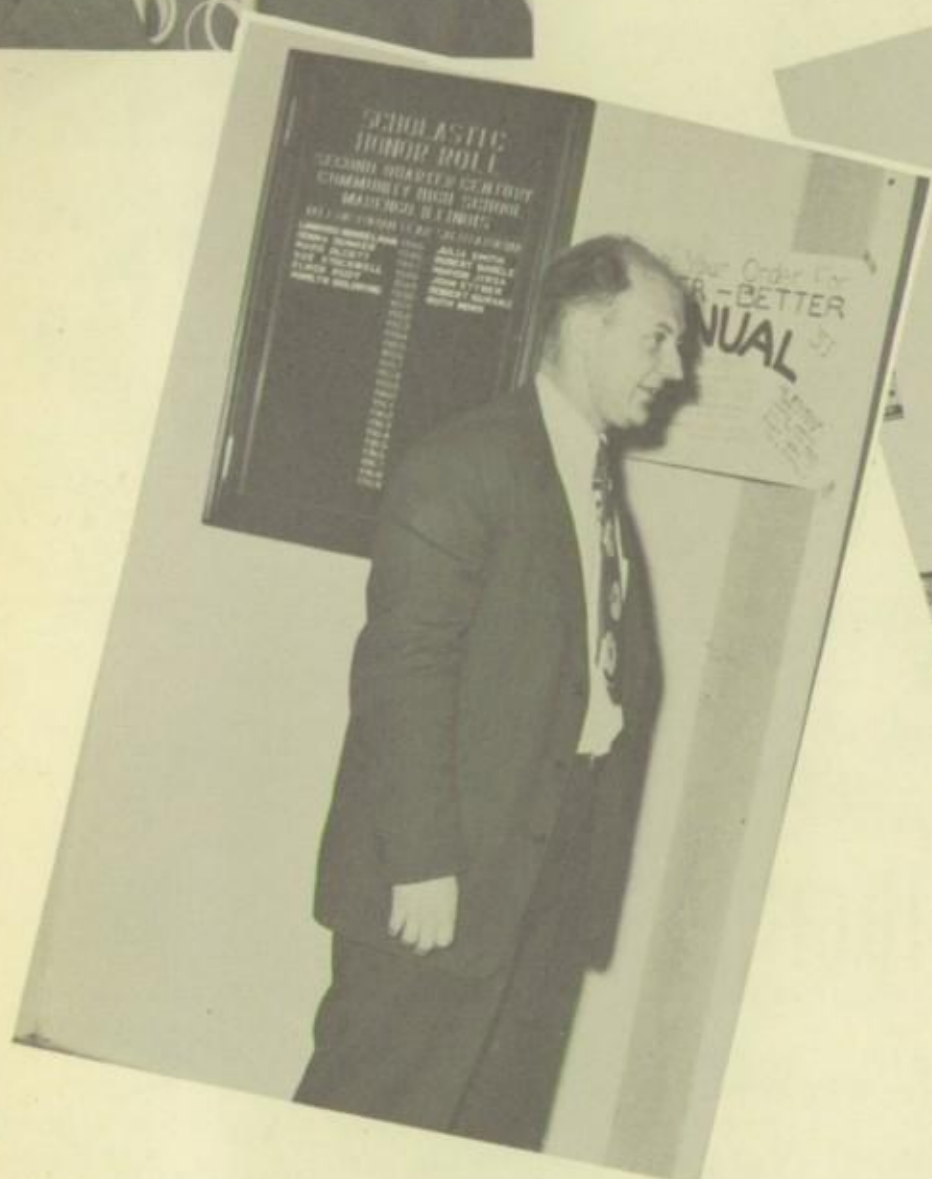

Sincerely,

E. C. Nichols

CLASS OF '51

The Class of '51, although one of the smallest classes ever to graduate from MCHS has contributed much to the school in spirit, education, and sports.

Among their many accomplishments was the winning of first place on three out of four homecoming floats. Both class plays were fine examples of their dramatic ability.

The high-light of their Junior year was the Jr.-Sr. prom, one of the most outstanding proms ever to be given. In their Senior year they held the Winter Formal on the night of January 20. A lot of hard work resulted in beautiful decorations and a well planned and greatly appreciated dance.

Their contributions to the field of sports have been of the highest, in that the class has produced both highly skilled basketball and football players. The class prides itself in having so many of its boys on the starting line ups. Also, several of the boys have done exceptionally well in track meets.

The class feels that it owes much of its success to Mr. David Boies who has been the class advisor for their four years. They wish to thank him for his patience and understanding in all their activities. They feel that without his encouragement and guidance their four years at MCHS would not have meant so much to them.

HISTORY OF

CLASS OF '51

On September 7, 1947, sixty-four students entered Marengo High to begin their Freshman year. The principal of the school was Mr. E. A. Anderson. The advisors for the class were Miss Penney, Miss Thompson and Mr. Boies.

The first two weeks were hectic for the Freshmen, for they received much punishment from the Sophomores and upper classmen. The initiation ended on Friday of the second week with an initiation party, which was held in the evening.

The "Freshies" chose as their officers, Clayton Fox, president, Bill Becklinger, vice-president, Lois Davis, secretary, and Carlene Griebel, treasurer.

When Homecoming arrived, the Freshmen elected Shirley Stokes to be their queen in the festivities. The Freshmen had the distinction of winning first prize for their class float.

Two parties were given by the Freshmen for the whole school. One, a "Sweater Hop" was held in December and the other, a "Box Social" was held in April.

Six classmen were elected to the House of Representatives and three were elected to the Senate.

At the beginning of the Sophomore year, Bill Pingel was elected president, Don Larson, vice-president, Shirley Stokes, secretary, and Clayton Fox, treasurer.

Four seats were held in the House and four in the Senate by the Sophomores.

Pat Atherton was elected queen of the class in the Homecoming events.

Two parties were given for the whole school during the year. One was held in September in the form of an initiation party for the incoming freshmen. The other party was given in February. Its title was "Sleigh Dance."

When the Class of '51 became Juniors, they gained the name of upperclassmen. They let everyone know it, too!

Officers elected were Bill Pingel, president, Ken Van Hagen, vice-president, Darlene Ratcliff, secretary, and Pat Atherton, treasurer. Four seats were held in the Senate, three in the House, and one in the Supreme Court and Cabinet by the Juniors. The class advisors were Miss Penney, Mr. Boies, Mrs. Husfeldt and Mr. Teal. Mr. E. C. Nichols was principal of M.C.H.S.

The Class of '51 again had the distinction of winning first prize on their Homecoming float on which rode their queens, Pat Atherton and Juanita Ray.

This class had the opportunity of presenting a play. The play that they chose was a mystery-comedy entitled "Hobgoblin House."

A lovely Junior-Senior Prom was sponsored by the Juniors. The banquet was held at the Marengo Community Center. The dance was given at the Sycamore Country Club with Al Raymond's band of Rockford furnishing the music for the gala affair. The theme of the event was Hawaiian.

When the Class of '51 became Seniors, they elected Ken Van Hagen, president, Ted Kometani, vice-president, Barbara Watkins, secretary, and Darlene Ratcliff, treasurer. Clayton Fox was president of the Student Government. Five students were elected to the House and four to the Senate. Class advisors were Mr. Boies and Miss Nicwander.

This year, the Senior class of the Class of '51 earned the grand prize for their float in the Homecoming parade. They had as their queen Geraldine Lungstrom and Jerry Fiepeke as their king. Jerry was crowned King at the Homecoming dance.

The Seniors had the job of giving the Winter Formal. This they did very successfully. It was held at the Masonic Temple in Marengo on January 20. George Edwards' band furnished the music for the event. The dance was entitled "Marshmallow Whirl."

In the spring a class play was given. It was enjoyed by all.

The high school days drew to a close for the Class of '51 with Commencement exercises being held June 1 in the high school auditorium.

CLASS PROPHECY

Here it is in the year of 1961 and we are at the reunion of the class of '51. It seems like ten very short years but we notice many changes. At the head table we see the speaker of the evening, Professor David Boies. Seated next to him is "Casanova" Ken Van Hagen, who is still looking around. We also notice Rev. Roger Olson and his wife (the former Joan Montgomery). Also seated at the head table is the famous hunter and explorer, Ben Dailey, who has just returned from an expedition into deepest Africa. On his return trip he brought back "Giggles" Gustafson, who has spent quite some time there learning native dances.

Seated at the next table are the famous "Mink Kings," Roger Anderson, Howard Billings, Fred Anderson and Ed Kanaly. With them is Don Shearer, who is head basketball coach at Bradley University and Ted Kometani, the reknowned interpreter for the United Nations.

Unable to attend is Dorothy Beebe, who would rather stay home and watch Bill Becklinger give wrestling lessons over television.

Lyle Krause, MKM movie photographer, has taken time out from his movie production, "Duel in the Moon," to film our reunion.

Through his camera he catches a picture of the girls' basketball team, the "Shooting Squaws," who are touring the country doing exhibition games. They include such familiar faces as: Betty Dunker, Dulcie Dunker, Darlene Ratcliff, Joann Giertz, Beatrice Tessendorf and Geraldine Lungstrom.

We hear organ music in the background and discover that Stanley Kozial has finally shown his hidden talent for music. Looking over his shoulder is Captain Barb Watkins of the Woman's Air Force.

On hand in case of an accident we notice Joanne Hauri and Marian Wilson, both doing very well in the field of nursing. And we hear rumors that Marian is soon to be appointed as head of the National Red Cross.

Coming into the spotlight now is the original Barbershop Quintet: Frank Mack, Charles Beverly, Lloyd Haseman, Gerald Lungstrom and "Cuddles" Kugler, the director. They are singing a special number, "The Anniversary Song" for the family table—Quinton Juviland and the former Dorothy Gehrke, Jackie and Dave Miller, Pat and Clayton Fox, Lill and Bill Pingel and Nancy Lueck and her husband. Baby-sitting for the married couples are Marjorie Wiedner and Evalyn Thompson, who are the owners of a very profitable baby-sitting agency.

Carlene Griebel and Shirley Stokes have been delayed with some last minute business at their Lonely Hearts Club.

Carol Driver, a featured skater at Ronnie Lipinsky's Pink Dink Roller Rink, could not attend because she is giving a command performance for the King of Peruvia, who is none other than Jerry Fiepke.

We notice little signs on the tables which say "All beef donated by the Pollock and Tomlin Beef Ranches." Upon investigating further, we find that Bill Pollock and Gene Tomlin own a chain of beef ranches throughout Kansas and Nebraska and very generously offered us a couple steers for the reunion.

After talking over old times with all our classmates we finally settle down to enjoy an evening of entertainment with the best class ever to graduate from good old M.C.H.S.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of '51, city of Marengo, school of Marengo Community High, state of Illinois, being of sound minds and memories, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

First, we leave all the good time and happiness we have had at M.C.H.S. to all remaining and incoming students. Jerry Fiepke leaves his big broad shoulders to Normie Pollock. Fred Anderson, Howie Billings and Ed Kanaly leave their "rabbit feeding" to Monroe Smith, Wayne Kolberg and John Duyn. Roger Anderson leaves all his umpteen occupations to John Kitchen. Lowell Kugler leaves his cuddly ways to LaVona Thomas. Clayton Fox leaves his long trips to town to brother Dave in hopes that he has more powers of resistance. Stanley Kozial leaves his driving—ahem—ability to John Henning. Lyle Krause leaves his flash bulbs to any amateur photographer running around school. Lloyd Haseman leaves his levis to Charlie Dawes. Gene Tomlin leaves his persuasion to get the new Buick to Gerry Hyser. Don Shearer leaves his basketball ability to the 1951-1952 basketball team. Geraldine Lungstrom leaves her pretty hair to those who have their hair in pin curls every day. Joan Montgomery leaves her briskey walk to Mrs. Trigg. Carol Driver leaves her "easy come, easy go" attitude to the mothers of the class of '51. Barb Watkins leaves her ability to stick to one man to Janet Van Hagen. Beatrice Tessendorf leaves her neatness to the girls who are always seen running around school in jeans. Gerald Lungstrom leaves his so called checker playing ability to the other noon hour kibitzers. Ronald Lipinsky leaves his hidden interest for girls to Don Volkman. Ted Kometani leaves his silence in English class to Christine Pearson. Bill Pingel leaves his debating ability to Mr. Teske. Dave Miller leaves his jokes to the Jokers of '52. Frank Mack leaves his mechanical ability to Tom Cain. Dulcie Dunker leaves to buy a pair of six inch heels so she can look into you know who's eyes. Ben Dailey leaves his obligations to the world. Carol Gustafson leaves her frown so she can face the world with a smile. Darlene Ratcliff leaves her nickname to Sandra Kelley. Carlene Griebel leaves her Charleston ability to Miss Nicewander. Joann Giertz leaves her way with the teachers to Eugene Slaughter. Betty Dunker leaves her giggles to Shirley Kubly. Dorothy Beebe and Bill Becklinger leave together. Kenny Van Hagen leaves his casanova heart to whoever is in need of a winning way. Nancy Lueck leaves to carry on the career as a little home maker. Marjorie Weidner and Evalyn Thompson leave with pleasure their secretarial term with Mr. Boies to Betty Ettner and Betty Abraham. Shirley Stokes leaves her liking for tall men to whoever wishes to get one. Dorothy Gehrke and Quinton Juviland leave their congenial ways to Janice Barth and Richie Bauman. Joan Hauri leaves her ability to secure high grades in bookkeeping to some poor soul who will be struggling in next year's class. Marion Wilson gives her ability to plan ahead to those who never know what's next. Jackie Willis leaves her ability to come out with a witty remark at just the right moment to Dave Fox. Charles Beverly leaves his height to Bill Griebel. Each member of the class of '51 wills one straight hair to Mr. Boies. Bill Pollock leaves his cowboy hat to Donna Volstorff. Pat Atherton leaves her willingness to get along with others to all students in general. Roger Olson leaves his diary to Richie Bauman.

ACTIVITIES

1950 HOMECOMING QUEEN

Betty Tomlin

The main event of the 1950 Homecoming was the crowning of the queen, Betty Tomlin. She was chosen from 3 other candidates to be the queen of Homecoming.

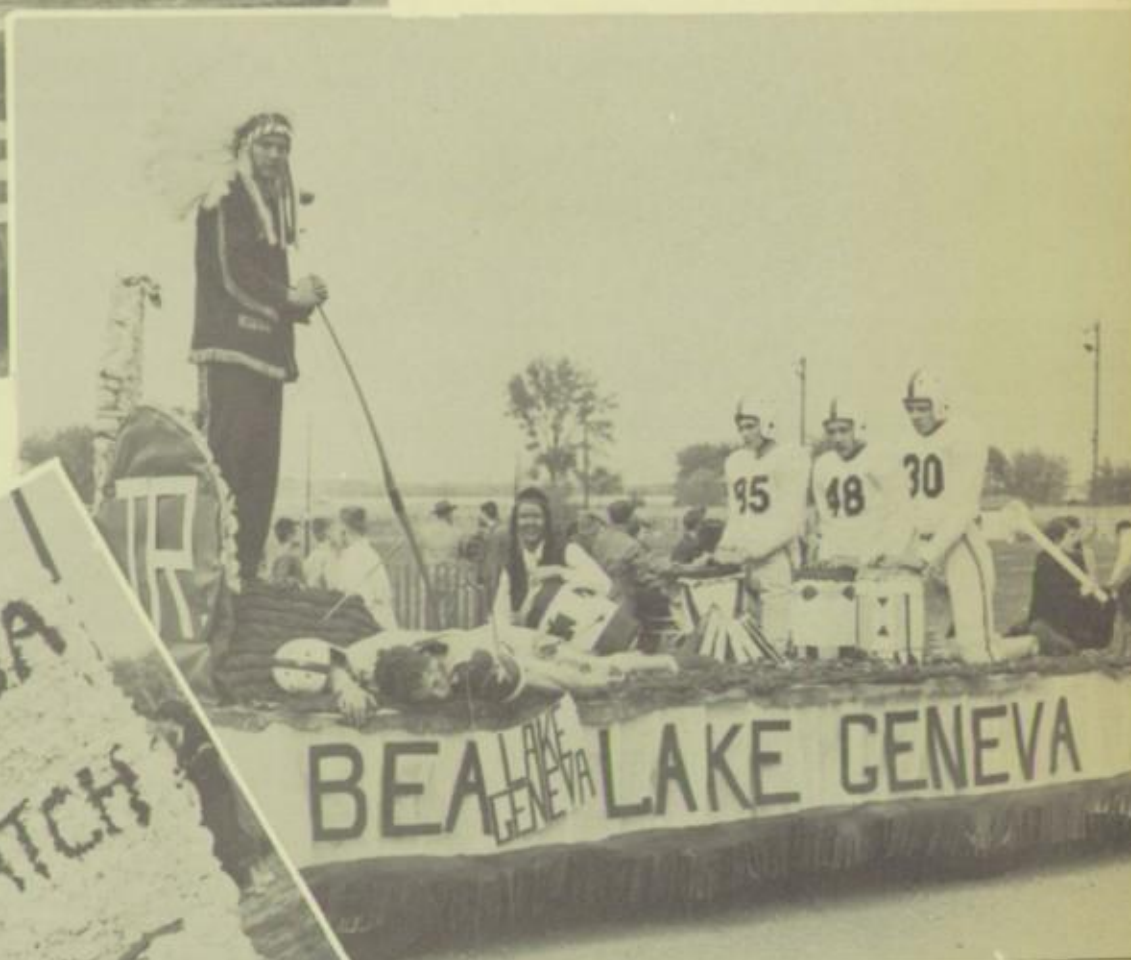

The coronation took place on the Marengo grid-iron during half time of the football game. Betty was given the crown and royal robe by Sally Repp, last year's queen.

The cabinet represents the executive branch of the Student Government, being made up of the presidents of the four classes and president and vice-president of the Student Council.

The purpose of the cabinet is to coordinate all activities in which the whole student body participates, or is concerned in. The work of the Student Council is organized so that the responsibilities may be carried equally by the four classes.

The duties and powers of the House of Representatives and Senate are substantially equal. Each has the power to pass legislation concerning itself, but all matters concerning expenditures, profits, and rulings pertaining to each group, must be passed by both governmental bodies.

Most resolutions must begin in the House of Representatives. Powers to raise revenue, pass laws, and administer justice, are, in short, the objectives of Student Government work.

The Future Homemakers of America have many activities to perform. Above you see them preparing a CARE package for overseas. To the right—square-dancing, which everyone just loves to do at the FFA-FHA parties.

Some of the girls are working on the FHA scrapbook.

H. A. IZATION

To observe national FHA week the club prepared an exhibit for the trophy window.

Officers for 1950-51 are Marjorie Yerke, Pres., Barb Watkins, Sec., Carol Ackman, Treas., Carol Hahn, Historian, and Joyce Moss, Reporter.
